MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Support

SUBJECT : Midcareer Course #10
Frank Pace, Jr. as Guest Speaker

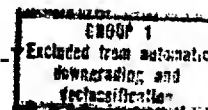

1. It has occurred to [] that Frank Pace, Jr. would make a fine big-name graduation speaker for the final day of Midcareer Course #10. The date is 28 October and if he is available he could speak at any time convenient to him between 1000 and 1400 hours. Since it is the graduation address it could not be done on any other day. [] heard Mr. Pace at the Naval War College some two years ago and found him quite interesting. Also, on 7 September at 0900 hours Mr. Pace is scheduled to address the National War College on the subject, "Industry, Management and Free Enterprise as Factors of National Power."

2. The attached biographic material for your information consists of excerpts from Who's Who in America, 1964-65 Edition. Later information has Mr. Pace presently the President of International Executive Services Corporation, New York City. He continues as a member of the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board.

3. We believe there are at least three or four areas that Mr. Pace could cover, but would suggest that the specific topic be left until this could be discussed with Mr. Pace if he were willing and available. Of immediate concern to us is the problem of ascertaining the most effective approach to Mr. Pace. If one of our senior officers knows him personally it would be most helpful if that officer could contact him on our behalf. We ask that you query Colonel White and Mr. Helms for any other possible channel to Mr. Pace. If someone could make this contact, [] could take it from there.
